The Pastor's Point

The People Around Us

Sometimes it is very interesting to watch and notice the people around us. Recently, at Barnes and Noble in Bismarck, while enjoying a sugar free iced tea and wanting something more tasty, more sweet, I was surrounded by a lot of people, most likely from all walks of life. Every table was filled and I wondered: what was their story? Everyone has a story.

One young couple, sitting quite close together, hardly said a word to each other, both looking at computers, or phones, one drinking water, the other a coffee and hardly noticing each other. What a shame! There was a group of young ministers from an evangelical church in Bismarck discussing what they were going to preach about this weekend. As I strained to hear what they were saying, I discovered that I couldn’t use anything they said. A couple of ladies seated next to me compared their aches and pains and home-grown treatments and I wondered if they could help me with my ailments. An elderly gentleman had a pile of travel books on his table slowly sipping his Starbucks’ coffee looking very interested at places either he has been or would never get to. Another group of young adults drinking large iced drinks, playing cards, ignored all the interesting books and great literature that surrounded them. A mother or babysitter brought three children showing them the value of books. The kids were so excited. Maybe they haven’t discovered texting. People came and went and life is like that. So many people are around us and isn’t it wonderful that these are all of God’s children; even the evangelical ministers! They all have a story and I would like to think that these are all of God’s children; even the evangelical ministers! They all have a story and I would like to think God is part of that story whether they acknowledge God is important to them in their lives or not. The “fact” of our faith is, they, all of them, are important to God. We should never forget that. Jesus prayed that we may all be one. I wonder if He was sitting at the Starbucks in Jerusalem when he thought about it.

Some may find it strange or a waste of time, frivolous or pointless, to have an iced tea and notice all these people around us. Recently, at Barnes and Noble in Bismarck, while enjoying a sugar free iced tea and wanting something more tasty, more sweet, I was surrounded by a lot of people, most likely from all walks of life. Every table was filled and I wondered: what was their story? Everyone has a story.

The young couple are now talking and smiling and communicating with each other. Good for them! I am happy for them. The elderly man with the travel books is smiling, maybe remembering a place very special to him. The ministers seem to have their sermons prepared for the weekend. Lucky them! Oh, Oh! The two ladies next to me are now talking about their parish priests. I think it is time to go home.

Fr. Dave Zimmer

“Acquire the habit of speaking to God as if you were alone with Him, familiarly and with confidence and love, as to the dearest and most loving of friends.”

Linton Day of Caring, Wednesday, Aug. 16!

United Way Day of Caring was established to promote the spirit and value of volunteerism and demonstrate how people working together for the good of the community can accomplish great things! Typically, volunteers work in collaboration with private non-for-profit agencies, civic agencies, social service organizations and neighbors in need. This year, the Linton Chamber of Commerce has partnered with MSA United Way to be a part of Day of Caring in Linton! Since this is Linton’s first annual Day of Caring, we reached out to our local parks and school for potential projects.

Volunteer on August 16: Organize a team from your workplace or register as an individual.

Go to www.volunteerbisman.com and click on the Day of Caring tab on the top of the page. In the ‘Search by Keyword’ on the right side, enter ‘Linton’ and choose ‘Apply Filter.’ You will see five options to choose from which includes a location, description, time frame, and # of volunteers needed. Register individually or as a family.

Schedule of events:
8:30 a.m. — Kick-off event at American Legion Park by the swimming pool
9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. — Volunteer at one of five projects that interests you (see website for details).

For questions please contact Billie Schumacher at 701-254-4489.

Real Presence Radio

What is keeping you from becoming Catholic? This is the theme of a call-in show hosted by Dr. David Anders, catechist, speaker, writer, and former Protestant historian who now embraces the riches of the Catholic Church. “Called to Communion” answers questions about the Catholic faith and is very informative for non-Catholics as well as Catholics who want to learn more about what the Church believes and teaches. Tune in Monday – Friday at 1:00 p.m. CT on 91.7/91.3 (Bismarck/Mandan), 104.1/89.1 (Williston), 91.1 (Minot), 101.9 (Dickinson).

St. Paul Parish

St. Paul Parish is forming a building and grounds committee. Anyone interested in serving on this committee, please call the Parish Office 254-4588.

The St. Anthony Fall Festival volunteer sign-up boards are now available in the gathering area.

Second apparition of the Angel

The second apparition of the Angel of Portugal occurred in the summer of 1916 over the well at the house of Lucia’s parents, next to which the three children were playing.

This is how Sister Lucia narrates what the angel said to them:

“‘What are you doing? Pray! Pray a great deal! The Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary have merciful designs concerning you. Offer prayers and sacrifices constantly to the Most High!’

“‘How must we sacrifice?’ I asked.

“‘Offer God a sacrifice of anything you can as an act of reparation for the sins with which He is offended and as a supplication for the conversion of sinners.

Draw peace upon your country by doing this. I am your guardian angel – the Angel of Portugal.

‘Above all, accept and endure with submission whatever suffering the Lord sends you.’ Then he disappeared.

“The angel’s words were impressed upon our souls like a light that made us understand Who God is, how much He loves us and wishes to be loved, the value of sacrifice and how sacrifice pleases God, and how He converts sinners because of it.”

“I think the weekend was very powerful and it’s life changing and I recommend all teens who have the chance to go to it — need to go to it.”

“This weekend was the best weekend of my summer! One reason why is because it was stress-free, you forget about everything and just think about God! Second, is at adoration I got this weird feeling, my knees collapsed and then I got all emotional and at the end started laughing, and I think it was God saying he is going to help me, my hardest to stop all my addictions and help me start new! And deep down in my heart I could feel God telling me ‘priesthood!’

“Stuebenville was a great life changing experience. You can feel and get to know God’s love! I recommend this to everyone that can go!”

We have referenced this fact previously. In fact, the term “Son of Man” occurs 85 times in the Gospels, and in 83 of them it is Jesus who uses the term. (It appears 32 times in Matthew; 15 times in Mark; 26 times in Luke; and 12 times in John, and it is in John where it is used twice by someone other than Jesus.)

The important point for us is that Jesus calling Himself the Son of Man explains that He was born of a woman, and He shares in our earthly conditions and sufferings. That fact should make us want to embrace Him as our Savior, our Friend, and our Shepherd even more.
